2. Ordering Information & Global Availability (Titles after publication/launch)

In general, our books are available through major book retailers and platforms.

We are aware that every school, depending on its location, has its own acquisition processes. Please check with your school or educational institution to find out how new titles are added to your school library's collection. In some cases, school libraries work with specialized distributors or library services (e.g. national or regional library suppliers). If your institution collaborates with an existing book distributor, please check whether our titles are available through them.

If your school or educational institution organizes book acquisition through a library system, you can find further information on our website in the "Libraries" section. Even if not everything directly applies to your specific setup, you may still find valuable insights there.

In some countries, teachers or schools also have access to class-set lending programs (i.e. systems that allow borrowing multiple copies for classroom use and returning them afterwards). If such a program exists in your region, please check whether you can borrow a class set rather than purchase all copies.

Please contact your local school library service, national library organization, or educational lending agency to learn which options may be available in your area.

Please note that Gusta & Gusto Publishing House has no influence over how distribution or lending programs are managed in individual regions.

2.1. Order directly with the ISBN — worldwide in EN | DE (cataloging information)

Please note:

Titles are available after publication/launch. Gusta & Gusto Publishing House has no influence over the management of regional distribution or lending programs.
