

Reading Promotion Tips for Families and Children

These suggestions support booksellers in featuring and recommending the

- English Title: "Gusta & Gusto – Horns & Hearts in Rhino Country – Book 1"
 - German Title: „Gusta & Gusto – Hörner & Herzen im Nashornland – Band 1"
- Shared reading at home, including questions about the story
 - Encourage imagination: "What would you do if you were Gusta?"
 - Create or draw your own animal friends
 - Record your own audio scenes with different voice roles
 - Create a "Reading Corner" at home inspired by Rhino Country – with cozy lights, soft pillows, and maybe a little horn decoration
 - Invent your own ending: How might the story continue? What happens next in Rhino Country?
 - Word treasure hunt: Choose a word from the story (e.g., "heart", "courage", "friendship") and look for it in other books or daily life
 - Act it out: Recreate a short scene together with simple props or costumes
 - Story snacks: Prepare a small themed snack – maybe "Rhino cookies" or a "Jungle fruit mix" to enjoy while reading
 - Language bridge: Read one page in German and one in English – explore how words sound and feel
 - Story postcards: Write a postcard as if you were planning to visit Gusta & Gusto in Rhino Country or after your visit in Rhino Country.
 - Listening moments: Combine reading with short audio samples from the audiobook – let children guess which scene it is
 - Podcast corner: Record a mini "episode" about your favorite part of the story
 - Map of Rhino Country: Draw the land, its paths, and your favorite places from the story
