About the Book — Reading Promotion & Inspiration

Gusta & Gusto are two rhinos who make their way through life with heart and a pinch of humor. In Book 1, they gently embark on a journey through the realms of friendship, courage, and imagination — told in a warm, poetic, and thoughtful way. Written in clear and accessible language, and lovingly illustrated, the Gusta & Gusto stories invite both young and adult readers to share meaningful moments across generations. Ideal for: library reading corners, family reading events, bilingual and emotional literacy programs.

Reading Promotion, Cultural Programs and Community Engagement

- Storytime & Read-Aloud Sessions (10–15 minutes): ideal for family events, bilingual story hours, or themed afternoons.
- Cultural Weeks & Library Exhibitions: highlight topics such as friendship, courage, empathy, or nature through creative displays and activities.
- Intergenerational Reading Corners: connect children, parents, and grandparents through shared storytelling moments.
- Partnerships with Schools & Kindergartens: encourage emotional literacy and early language development in collaboration with educators.
- Special Occasions: Reading Aloud Day, Library Week, — thematic highlight, World Rhino Day: September 22 (As PDF in our download section) to celebrate courage, empathy, and connection with nature as part of community programs.
