

Gusta & Gusto Publishing House – Our Manifesto

Our Series – Timeless Stories Shaped by the Spirit of the Zeitgeist

With its messages, the publishing house turns the spotlight onto the world's stages and its audiences – allowing literary scores and the universe of storytelling to become accessible, audible, and tangible.

Gusta & Gusto Publishing House is an overture for our readers – books as bouquets of words: blossoms of memory, buds of the future – united in the power of the present moment.

Storytelling is a necessity – storytelling is a right: like a call from the orchestra pit – as surprising as life itself.

Our three series spring from the depths of an inexhaustible source.

They create a panorama – a journey through memories, experiences, wishes, and diverse perspectives – landscapes filled with emotions, sounds, and a broad spectrum of moods and climates.

Young as the gentle arabesque of a butterfly's wing,
Ancient as the mighty olive tree,
Timeless as salt.

Each series is a journey, a path with its own signature.
